

I urge the FCC to continue current ownership rules. I oppose taking a vote that leads to more media consolidation. Please continue to serve the public, rather than private interests.